D. S. SHELLEBAUGH & Co., this morning, broke ground for their new $35,000 merchant mill to be erected immediately. The mill will be put up on North Water Street, near the Wabash railway. It will give steady employment to a large number of laborers.

R. C. CHACKAN is the Water street square dealing hardware merchant. He is selling stoves at less than cost, and the public is urged to call and take advantage of the low prices.

According to the latest returns there are 6,000 yelping canines in Decatur—just half a dog for every man, woman and child within the corporate limits of the city. But we do not rejoice—we mourn.

You See Them—Before buying a cooking stove, go to Ashby & Andrews' and see their renowned "Early Breakfast," and the "Astral" hard coal base burner.

Nearly a thousand dollars were pledged at the First M. E. church yesterday towards the liquidation of the debt, and others have agreed to add to that amount. This charge has raised, this conference year, over $7,000 for church purposes, and but few, comparatively, have helped.

FOR RENT—Two nicely furnished rooms on second floor in a new dwelling house almost opposite the Decatur high school, on East North street. Enquire of Mrs. W. H. Fanning, on the premises.

Aug. 15—dlf

EVERYBODY is going to the popular New York Store this week to share in these bargains.

TALK about your roasting ears! "Uncle Jimmy" Miller of Harriestown township takes the belt. He brought to this office this forenoon four huge ears, each of which measures 14 inches in length, and is as large around as Ben Dodson's arm. Two would serve as a mess for a family of six.

After these pictures of your house framed at J. M. Stooker & Co.'s—the cheapest and finest stock of frames to be found in the city.

Temperance Tips.
Four hundred people or more were present at the temperance meeting at the tabernacle last Saturday evening. D. L. Bunn presided as usual. E. P. Vail, Esq., did not speak as was announced, owing to an indisposition. Rev. N. S. Haynes read an interesting temperance poem which was followed by a stirring address by Capt. J. S. Post. Another meeting was announced for August 30th. The state temperance convention, which convenes at Lincoln Sept. 9-11, was also announced. Parties wishing to attend this convention can do so at a very small expense, as the P. L. & D. railway company will sell round trip tickets for $1.60, and the people of Lincoln are prepared to entertain delegates and visitors free of cost. It is expected that Francis Murphy will be present one day of the session.

Criminal Notes.
The quartet of vagabonds and prostitutes, arrested in the brush north of the Midland junction, on Friday afternoon, were up for trial before Justice Albert Saturday evening. The girls were fined $50 and costs each, one of the darks $50 and costs, and the other $10 and costs.—The $10 party gave security for his fine, and the balance of the gang were confined in the county jail. Bannister has employed a lawyer, and will probably schedule out to-day or to-morrow.

Saturday night, about 10:30 o'clock, a party of thieves at the depot got into a P. L. & D. baggage car and broke open Conductor John S. Campbell's trunk, extracting therefrom a thirty dollar suit of navy blue clothes, a valuable revolver, a conductor's cap and lantern, besides a lot of papers and canceled railroad tickets. Sunday morning the cap and lantern and a lot of tickets were found scattered about on the commons near the first ward school house. The clothes and revolver are still missing. The police are searching for the thieves.

About ten days ago the half-breed Indian loafer, Wm. Hyatt, stole a horse from a farmer named Wilson, residing near Illinois. Wilson was in Decatur last Monday looking for the thief, and the police authorities put him on the right track.—On Thursday Hyatt was arrested in Paris, wearing a new suit of clothes and having on his person a big revolver. He is now in the county jail in this city, and will await the action of the grand jury in December. The stolen horse is still missing. It is Wilson's opinion that the half-breed stole the animal, bought the clothing and revolver and then squandered the balance of the money.

"Our Boarding House" To-night. The Charles Forbes' Dramatic Combination is in the city, and will appear at the opera house to-night in the popular domestic drama of "Our Boarding House." The Bloomington Pantagraph of the 23d inst. made the following reference to this company:

Considering the extreme and oppressive heat last night, there was a complimentary attendance at Durley Hall to witness the performance of the Forbes Dramatic company in the play of "Our Boarding House." The plot of the play is laid in Chicago, and abounds in the extravagant, speculations and social anomalies of the great city of the lakes. "Gillypud" and "Elektor" were rendered with fine effect, and the famous shot-gun scene fairly brought down the house. The best acting of the evening was by Miss Flora Newton, who assumed the role of Beatrice Manheim. She rendered her part with much skill, and in one or two of the scenes acted with much pathos and sympathetic effect. She was the recipient of very enthusiastic applause, which it was a disappointment to the audience that she did not respond.

The Forbes troupe are deserving of patronage and ought to have a crowded house to-night and a large attendance at the matinee this afternoon. Three or four of the artists possess positive merit. We bespeak for them a cordial recognition in the matinee of Uncle Tom's Cabin and the evening performance of Asa Whitcomb, which, we believe, has never been given in Bloomington.

Admission 25 cents to all parts of the house; children half price. To-morrow night "Asa Whitcomb" will be presented, with matinee performance in the afternoon.

A Dwelling Burned.
Sunday evening about 9:30 o'clock the story and a half frame residence of A. L. Sharp, the butcher, in the village of La Place, on the I. & D. S. Railway, caught fire from some matches in a closet, and burned to the ground, a loss of $400; no insurance. The household effects were saved. The dwelling was the property of Pat Godfrey, who resides at Mexico, Mo.

A DELEGATION of 12 persons from the Alex. Montgomery, Milton (Ire.) and Bingham families, took the P. L. & D. train this noon on a week's fishing excursion to Mackinaw, five miles south of Pekin. They had blankets, tents, plenty of grub, and 800 minnows, etc.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. John Nicky, a wealthy resident of Oakley township, aged about 65 years, while handling heavy timber, met with an accident which has cost him the loss of his left leg. A heavy board fell on the limb crushing the knee cap. Decatur surgeons were summoned to his relief, and the limb was amputated eight inches above the knee Saturday night. It was a very unfortunate occurrence, and the aged sufferer has the sincere sympathy of all his friends in his affliction. He was resting comfortably at last accounts.

JOHN WARD, who lives two miles southwest of town, made his appearance on the streets this morning with a new milk wagon, fitted up expressly for him by D. F. Hamsher, which is about the neatest rig we have seen for the purpose. The manner of its construction is exactly suited to his business, and John will be enabled to keep milk in the best condition for his customers.

BISHOP E. G. ANDREWS.
A Masterly Sermon and an Eloquent Lecture Delivered by this Eminent Divine in Decatur Yesterday to Immense Audiences.

Rev. Edward G. Andrews, of Des Moines, Iowa, one of the ablest Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, arrived in this city on Saturday evening. On Sunday morning at the FIRST M. E. CHURCH, in the presence of a vast congregation of christian people, he delivered a masterly discourse, taking for his text the parable of the talents, recorded in the 25th chapter of St. Matthew. He spoke in a conversational style for nearly an hour, and closed with a beautiful and convincing peroration. He addressed himself more particularly to the distribution of talents to each human being by the Great Founder and upholder of the universe, and his personal accountability for improving each and every one given him. The sermon was interspersed with many happy illustrations, and engaged the closest attention of the auditors to the end.

We regret exceedingly that our limited space forbids a full synopsis of the masterly effort. The pulpit and rostrum were very tastefully decorated with exquisite flowers—bouquets, crosses and anchors—and the Bishop was supported by Rev. Dr. Goodwin and Rev. G. W. Miller.

In the evening another very large outpouring of the people was witnessed at STAFF'S CHAPEL, where the Bishop delivered a very interesting and instructive address on his missionary tour through Europe and Asia. Here, also, the floral decorations were very beautiful, and the following ministers occupied the rostrum with the Bishop: Elder Hiram Buck, Rev. G. W. Miller, Rev. J. R. Locke and Rev. Dr. Goodwin. The address occupied about an hour and a quarter, and was interesting throughout, while the peroration was a bit of rare beauty and eloquence, describing the official announcement to the people of India of the placing over that people of Queen Victoria as sovereign. The numerical missionary statistics were given, and an account of the rise, progress and condition of the missions in Germany, Italy, Rome, Scandinavia, Constantinople and Hindoostan. His explanation of the system of caste was very clear and interesting, and the condition of the women of India was graphically set forth. The entire address was a personal narration of what the Bishop had seen and heard, and the incidents given by way of illustration were effective and to the point. Such lectures are really more valuable than the most of those the people pay high prices to hear.

OTHER CHURCHES.
A fair audience gathered at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and listened to a fine sermon by Rev. W. H. Prestley, of the Presbyterian charge. Rev. A. H. Chittenden held services at the U. B. Church, morning and evening. Rev. W. H. Moore at St. John's, Rev. N. S. Haynes at the Christian church, and Rev. S. S. Hebbard at the Universalist church. There were no services at the Bethel or Jones Chapel morning or evening.

The Railroad Boom.
We have frequently made mention of the heavy business done by the Wabash at this point on the road. Saturday, the 23d, was the biggest day yet. Over 125 freight cars were in and of this station all loaded with dead freight. Forty cars were loaded in the Wabash yard and sent out; 23 of the cars were received over the P. L. & D. road, and the balance came in on the main line. This is said to be the greatest number of cars received and sent out in one day since the road was established, and is indeed a convincing fact that business is reviving, not only in this part of the moral vineyard, but elsewhere as well.

Private School.
The first term of Mrs. Gage's Private School for Girls will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 3, 1879, at No. 6 North Water street, upstairs, over Jennison's jewelry store. Terms—$10.00 and $12.50. For further information concerning the school, Mrs. Gage can be consulted at the residence of Mr. Duxman, West Main street. REFERENCES—Wm. T. Harris, Supt. Public Schools, St. Louis; H. L. PERSONAL MENTION.
Miss Minnie Murphy is home from Richmond, Ind.
Captain Byron Darrett is at Cairo, Ill., on important business.
The Shelbyville Union says John Freeman is coming to Decatur to live.
Miss Flora Carter, of Springfield, has been visiting friends in this city.
The marriage of Ben Boynton, the gentlemanly clerk at the St. Nicholas hotel, is announced in another column to-day.
J. R. Race left for New York to-day at noon to buy a new and full stock of fall and winter clothing.
Mrs. D. H. Heilman and son are home from an extended visit to relatives in Pennsylvania.
The Journal reports that Mrs. M. J. Knipper, of Decatur, took the two first premiums in the textile fabric department at the Jacksonville fair last week.
Dick Devore, of hose company No. 2, got away with Bob Stewart yesterday in a 100 yards foot race. It was for a five dollar william.
Mr. M. R. Ross, Jr., partner of Boyd, Paisy & Co., and Miss Annie Miller, both of Lincoln, Ill., are in the city, guests of F. M. Young and brother.

For the information of Bishop Andrews, Elder Hiram Buck, Rev. Dr. Goodwin, Rev. G. W. Miller and Rev. J. R. Locke, we will state that there are 55,400 square miles in the state of Illinois.

We have received a note from Mrs. O. Z. Greene, stating that she has been asked her terms for painting a full-length portrait of A. J. Gallagher, to which request she complied; but she has made no application for the commission.

Walt T. Melville, who will personate the character of "Col. M. T. Elevator" in "Our Boarding House" at the opera house to-night, is the same gentleman who received such deserved applause in this city several months ago when he was with the Leonard Grover combination.

Theodore Gaebler, late of Tuscola, has returned to Decatur, and will reside here permanently. He has taken an interest in his father's marble yard on East Washington street, where he may be found in future.

Mr. David Ray, of Whitmore township, came into this office to-day with a lot of most magnificent grapes and apples, produced on his farm. The apples are especially fine, being large and of excellent quality. Mr. Ray has our hearty thanks for his kindness.

Bishop E. G. Andrews, of Des Moines, Iowa, accompanied by Dr. Goodwin, gave the REPUBLICAN office a very pleasant call this morning. He has made hosts of friends in Decatur and will always be a most welcome visitor. He is a scholar, an orator and an earnest christian gentleman. He departed for Peoria this noon.

Uncle Billy Young, the v. of t. w. s., got home from the Aurora reunion last Saturday evening, covered with dust, hungry and tired. He says he had a grand time, and that there were thousands of soldiers there who hunted him up and treated him like a major general. He sold about 140 photographs of himself at 25 cents each.

A First-Class Driver.
Our reporter happened in at Caldwell Bros' livery stable on West Main street, this forenoon, and took a look through the establishment. It is one of the best appointed outfits of the kind in the state. A lot of new, stylish and fleet-footed steppers have but recently been purchased by this enterprising firm, and they are beauties, every one of them. But the buggies are perfect daisies. One in particular, manufactured by Wayne Bros., went into service last Saturday. It is of the very latest design, has the favorite Timkin springs, side bar, is gold-mounted, and moves along when attached to one of Caldwell's horses like a Colorado zephyr.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

FORSYTH.
Aug. 25—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mowry entertained about thirty of their friends on last Thursday evening. The Forsyth social orchestra were in attendance and played unusually well. Elegant refreshments were served at a reasonable hour, and will simply say it was pronounced the party of the season. It was given in honor of their friend, Mrs. Theo. Baxter, of Taylorville, who has been their guest for the past week. Mr. David Irwin has just returned to our village, after a year's absence in California. He is looking remarkably well. Our new postmaster seems to be perfectly at home behind the counter. He and Dr. Druy have a diving trade. We wish them success.

MARION.
Aug. 25—Constable Hoff's residence caught fire on the 21st, from a defective flue, but was promptly extinguished by the fire company. Loss nominal. Miss Agnes Andrews, for two years past, has been receiving instructions in vocal music at Chicago. She was the leading lady in a musical soiree at Janesville, Wisconsin, recently. A week ago Supervisor Longstreet captured a crazy woman named Garrison. She will be held until her friends can be heard from. The News says "William Armstrong, living near Argenta, was in Marion on Tuesday. He is one of Marion county's best farmers, and a man who never cracks about hard times, but sticks strictly to his farming, and makes them good for himself."

[Those twelve greenbackers that assembled in the court house here last Saturday ought to go and do likewise.]

Among the notable divines in attendance at the Mechanicsburg camp meeting on Friday were Rev. Hiram Buck, Decatur; Rev. J. H. Noble, Springfield; Rev. Smith, Illinois; Rev. J. T. Roberts, Grove City; Rev. Haley, Dawson. The meeting is reported as being a success.

FRANCIS MURPHY.
The Great Apostle of Temperance at the Tabernacle September 12th.

The management take pleasure in announcing to the friends of temperance and the public generally, that they have engaged the earnest, eloquent and gifted temperance orator, FRANCIS MURPHY, to deliver one of his most interesting lectures at the tabernacle, in this city, on the evening of FRIDAY, SEPT. 12th. Mr. Murphy has but recently returned from California, and everywhere he was greeted with crowded houses. His fame as a temperance speaker and organizer is not only national but world-wide, and people have traveled many miles to hear him in his pathetic appeals to drunkards to forsake their cups, reform, and be MEN.—Wherever he goes Francis Murphy preaches and practices gospel temperance, and many homes in this country to-day have reason to bless him and his noble efforts. The Murphy movement has swept over the entire land, and the fruits are plainly apparent in very many localities. Don't fail to hear him. Let the people come in from the country and from the neighboring towns and fill the tabernacle. Remember the date, Sept. 12th. Admission to all parts of the house, 25 cents.

Cheap Store Items.
Just received an elegant line of zephyr shawls comprising all grades and colors, which we are offering respectively at $1, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75. They are the nicest goods offered here this season. Also just received another invoice of the long open work hosiery gloves, very handsome, and selling low. In rushings and laces we will be able to show as fine a line as was ever exhibited here. The latter are due to-day, and we will take pleasure to show them to our patrons and friends to-morrow sometime. The goods were selected with the utmost care, and are the latest and newest in the market. We sell all goods at a very small advance on original cost, and ladies will consult their interest by calling early.
